call of County Chairman Jordan T.
Lawler's call for a meeting of his Democratic Chairmen, at the Court house Monday afternoon, and the will eventuate in the holding of Democratic primaries at the time provided by law.

Only two precincts were repre-

HONDO BOY WINS HOUSTON BRIDE
R. A. Buss and bride surprised their family and friends Monday by arriving here from Houston on a sort of a combination honeymoon trip and business and pleasure trip to Mr.
Buss' mother, Mrs. Hy Buss, Sr., and other relatives.
Mr. Buss, a former Hondo boy, has been a citizen of Houston for some months where he has a lucrative position with the Jack Roach Ford Company. He and Mrs. Judy Ford, a Houston girl, were quietly married in that city on Saturday, May 4, 1946. After a brief visit here, they returned to Houston and are making their home at 521 West Twentieth Street.
We join the many other friends of the young couple in extending congratulations and best wishes.

4-H CLUB MORE THAN JUST A NAME

Above—Vernor's Sno-Man.

Right—Vernor E. Bippert, and Ralph MacKenzie, Vice-President and Manager of our Dallas plant.

Out here in the midwest we live mightily, mightily close to the soil. We suppose for this reason, more than anything else, the 4-H Club is more, much more, than just a name. To us it represents the finest that our country produces in boys and girls whose primary interest is the production of better livestock. We are interested primarily because, as we stated before, we live close to the grazing lands and livestock and agriculture are the mainstay of our existence. From our territory come the fatted stock that eventually reaches the markets of the world and in our territory is located the great packing plants and warehouses that make this processing and distribution possible.
About once in a blue moon it is our privilege and our pleasure to contribute in a small way to the furtherance of this great industry.
We have recited many, many times the cooperation that we have been glad to extend to the orchardists in different localities and to the egg industry. Comes now to our desk a little story from down in Texas that we are sure will be of interest to everyone who is gratified by the progress being made by members of the 4-H Club.
Some few months ago our Dallas
Manager, Mr. Ralph MacKenzie, met Vernor E. Bippert of LaCoste, Texas.
Vernor is a member of one of the

THE 4-H PLEDGE
I pledge my head to clear thinking,
My heart to greater loyalty,
My hands to larger service
And my health to better living.
For my club, my community and my country.

4-H Clubs in the state of Texas and has made a fine record. So, acting in behalf of the United States Cold Storage Company, Ralph purchased a calf and presented it to Vernor as a present. Vernor started feeding his calf, which, incidentally he named Sno-Man, about the first of January. At this time the calf weighed about 220 pounds. On the first of May it weighed 522 pounds. Each month Vernor supplies us with a report showing the cost and quantity of pasturage, feed, minerals, vaccination, etc. The calf has been insured and this insurance increases 10% each month. You want to keep your eye on Vernor and on Sno-Man because Vernor is going to exhibit Sno-Man in a Texas Hereford Exposition to be held in Dallas late this year.
Vernor comes from down in La-Coste, Medina County, Texas. They are just as proud of him down there as we are and his record proves that he is really going to go places.

At the Medina County Fat Stock Show held February 27th and 28th
he entered a light weight milk fed Hereford Steer weighing 775 pounds which placed 5th. His hog entry weighing 262 pounds was picked as Grand Champion and his 76 pound lamb was the Reserve Grand Champion. Vernor tells us that the Grand Champion Steer of the Medina County Fat Stock Show is a half brother to Sno-Man so there is no doubt good blood and with the record Vernor has so far made we are quite sure that he will be among the top exhibitors in the big show at Dallas.
It is needless to add that the Sno-Man and the entire U. S. family extend to Vernor and his Sno-Man our best wishes for continued progress and success.—The U. S. Sno-Man.
This calf and 30 others are being supervised by C. M. Merritt, County Agent.

three years service in the European theatre. During this service he earned the Air Medal, 4 Oak Leaf Clusters, the Purple Heart and 4
Battle Stars.
This is his first venture into politics, but he is thoroughly familiar with the conditions of his state and district, and asks for the people's vote and support in his ambition to serve.

TO OUR PATRONS AND THE PUBLIC

In retiring from the mercantile business after over half a century, we take this means of extending our thanks and heartfelt appreciation for the patronage that has been extend-has been our pleasure to serve you in the past, we will likewise appreciate your continued patronage and favors to our successor, M. H. Saat-

MEDINA COUNTY CITIZENS TO PETITION COURT FOR FARM TO MARKET ROAD

Several hundred road-minded farmers and merchants of Medina County have signed a petition to present to the Medina County Court at its next meeting. The petition is a request that the Court approve paying and the building of a bridge across the Chicon, on the Devine-Castroville highway. This road runs north from Devine crossing the Chicon and goes to a point about one-quarter mile west of the townsite of Pearson where it joins the LaCoste-Dunlay road. This road is a straight connecting link between Devine and LaCoste as well as Dunlay and Castroville, and was a mail route for many years until the bridge was washed out across the Chicon. Part of this road is still a mail route and is impassible in rainy weather. In the past few years many new people have moved into this area which the road serves and the petition has been signed by every merchant in both LaCoste and Devine as well as hundreds of farmers up and down the road who want an all-weather road on which to take their crops to market. All signers of the petition are urged to be present in the Courthouse in Hondo at ten o'clock on Monday, the 13th of May, as a large delegation plans to meet with the Court then and make personal request that this work be approved and started at once. All hope for favorable consideration.

AIR FORCE SHOW INTEREST- ING DISPLAY

The Army Air Force Blue and Gold Caravan from Randolph Field showed a very interesting display of Air Force equipment in Hondo on Saturday and Sunday, May 4 and 5.
The officers and men of the caravan explained the use of the equipment to visitors, pointing out how the Army Air Force uses the various items to carry out its missions and to provide maximum safety and comfort for air crew members.
Included in the display were a cut-away B-29 engine, parachutes, life raft, emergency clothing, food,
flares, and radio, a Link trainer, radio compass, German and American aircraft instruments and a mobile Air Force Weather Station.
Major John R. Pennington, the officer in charge, was accompanied by three other officers and 15 enlisted men, all of whom are expert technicians in various positions in the Air Force.
The caravan left Hondo Monday morning and will go to Del Rio, stopping at most towns along the way.

LLOYD RIEBER RECEIVES PROMOTION

Tech. Sergeant Lloyd N. Rieber, better known to his friends as "Sonnie," writes from Kwangju, Korea, that he is still in the Far East but expects to be at home before long. Lloyd has been in the East most of his time in the army, seeing active duty in Luzon and getting his

ENGLISH BRIDE ARRIVES IN HONDO

This office was favored Monday by a call from Hubert Bulgerin and his pretty bride whom he married while soldiering in England. When Hubert was sent home by the army for discharge, she, along with thousands of others, was left behind to await the army's readiness to bring them to America.
Mrs. Bulgerin arrived in New York on April 27th, aboard the ship Saturnia, along with about 1000 other young wives. She reached San Antonio Wednesday of last week where she was met by her husband and they came out to Hondo Thursday.
This paper joins in welcoming her to her new American home and wishing her happiness therein.

cloths and were centered with rose-gaves of sweetpeas, daisies, delphinium, and Queen Anne's lace. Refreshments, served buffet style, consisted of sandwiches, potato chips, olives, salted nuts, cookies, and tea.

YOU might not think that football was back, with May on its way to June, but football is always back. It has few intermissions now from January to January.

Grantland Rice

Many of these practice delegations ran from 125 to 175 men. The early enthusiasm, even under blazing suns, was far beyond normal.

I ran into Wally Butts, Georgia's coach, who coyly admitted his 1946 Bulldogs would be better than fair.

"We had no line last fall," Wally said, "but we have a good line now and with Trippi on hand for the backfield, plus a few more, we hope to be ready for Alabama and Oklahoma A. and M., to mention only two. Also L.S.U."

In the meanwhile Alabama and Oklahoma A. and M. are racing the chance of losing Harry Gilmer and Bob Fenimore, two All-America stars. The beckoning finger of the army draft has called both for a physical test. These two have been in the 4-F class the last two seasons. But if they are taken, there can be no replacements to match their worth. Alabama has a great squad. But losing Gilmer is like losing a Sammy Baugh or a Luckman. Losing Fenimore, the 195-pound sprinter, passer and kicker would be no worse than the army losing Doc Blanchard.

Florida Full of Hope

Florida was running a high football fever. Ray Wolf and a new strong staff are now at Florida with the best Gator prospects in several seasons. Miami university, Orange Bowl winner over Holy Cross, expects to have a much better team than the 1945 squad.

Snuffy Stirnweiss, backfield coach at North Carolina, reports the arrival of halfback Justice at Chapel Hill, plus several additions that Carl Snively can use with considerable pleasure. I also received the news that Bob Neyland will have another Tennessee squad that will be hard to clean away. Also that Wallace Wade, back at Duke, is busier than ten swarms of bees getting ready for a hard campaign.

Southern teams have a stiff spring training grind and they are busier than usual with so many Bowls to be filled next year. With Neyland and Wade back they also face keener competition, especially if Frank Thomas at Alabama loses Gilmer.

No one can say yet what Henry Frnka will have at Tulane, but you can gamble the Green Wave is rolling forward. It might also be noted that no one can say yet just how many good football players the draft will remove from the scene all over the map. This draft procedure will wreck some teams while missing others completely.

Army and Notre Dame

We ran into several Notre Dame ex-stars who advised us to keep an eye on Frank Leahy's 1946 squad.

"The last two Army teams piled up 108 points against us in 1944 and 1945. A beating is one thing. A massacre is something else. But brother it is going to be different in 1946. Notre Dame will be there with what it takes. This means line, backfield, power and speed.

"Leahy will have both Kelly and Mello back. Here are two of the best backs Notre Dame has known in years. But they are only a small part of the material now on hand for spring practice at South Bend."

"You don't figure any Army push-over?" I asked the Notre Damer.

"Certainly not. But Army won't be the Army of 1944 and 1945. Why? The line. Yes, Army will have or should have the best backfield in football, headed by Blanchard, Davis and Tucker. But don't forget Army has lost a number of valuable linemen and that Army line has been a big factor in their victories.

In the meanwhile Capt. Tom Hamilton, now on the job at Navy, finds himself caught between two fires—Army and Notre Dame. Tom Hamilton is not only one of the best coaches in football, but one of the best inspirational leaders. Hamilton has the foundation or basis for a hustling, fighting squad that can make it extremely uncomfortable for any opponent on Navy's schedule.

Michigan's Troubles

Hamilton was the one man who saved college football during the war. At least he did more for the cause than any other three men I know about. One team that may acquire more than its share of draft trouble is Michigan. Last fall Fritz Crisler had 18 freshmen on his squad, 8 of whom were classed among his regulars. The Wolverines had one of the youngest squads in the country and for this reason may suffer heavier casualties.

Kathleen Norris Says:

Moving Into Paradise

Bell Syndicate.—WNU Features

"The atmosphere of the household changed; Hallie was a smiling, beloved wife again."

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

IF YOU knew of a country without care, would you move there?

If—beyond the ocean borders, or far south toward the Pole—there was an ideal land of eternal spring, a land whose people were simple and good, a land without money worries, without the nagging fears and disappointments that make up our daily lives here, without hate and war, how busily, and with what energy and determination, thousands of war-weary and worry-weary families would plan to move there!

Any sacrifice would be worth while, any effort made easy, by such a hope for ourselves and our children. For life on today's terms has grown too hard and too complicated, and in a sense, too hopeless, for many of us to face with courage. Mankind has been busy for years creating all the evils from which civilization ought to rescue us; ruin, hate, despair, fear, hunger, disease, debt. Now when optimistic voices tell us glibly how we shall overcome these evils we feel a deep discouragement. Overcome them? Why, they never should have existed at all!

Well, there is that ideal country, and it is close to us all. But very few women find it. When they do, when they live in that placid sunny climate, loving life as beloved and happy children do, liking to wake in the morning, welcoming the restfulness of sleep at night, we look at them with envy.

They Live in Peace.

These women are rare. Some of them are homely and poor and grizzled with years. Most of them have faces that show signs of past crises, agonies, sacrifices, despairs. But these things only show enough to make brighter the peace and beauty of their present lives.

Hallie Foster is one such woman, I know. I've never seen her; perhaps never will. But she writes me a letter that tells the old story, the story of a soul harassed with fears, of a body troubled with aches and pains, of a situation so complicated by mistakes and faults that there seemed to be no way out of it.

Hallie wrote me from Omaha, Neb., some four years ago. She had been divorced for some years, and was living with a second husband and two step-children, all of whom made life extremely difficult for her. She had been so anxious to divorce Van and marry Bruce that she ceded to Van the custody of her own child, a boy. Her baby by Bruce died at birth—she said because of the nervous condition into which the unmanageable step-children and disappointing husband had thrown her. She had backaches, headaches, sleepless nights. She wrote me that she had "long lost every vestige of charm, every scrap of attraction for Bruce, who is wasting his money on other women already."

Prayer Was Answered.

Meanwhile her own boy went into a long and dangerous illness. The scourge of infantile paralysis seized him and he needed actual years of tenderest care. Sick, over-

PRAYER CONQUERS ALL

Sometimes there seems to be no way out of difficulties. Unhappy marriages, sickness, poverty, loss of loved ones, press down on many women until the burden feels unbearable. There is only one way out.

After divorcing her first husband, Hallie married again, acquiring two step-children at the same time. Her own son contracted infantile paralysis and required constant care. Another baby died at birth. Then her husband began to spend his money on other women. Hallie's misery bowed her to the earth.

Then she turned in desperation, to prayer. She "cast her burden upon the Lord." Slowly she regained peace and resignation.

worked, jealous, nervous, what had Hallie to spare for him? She saw him only at long intervals, and his baby loyalty and devotion went to his grandmother and aunts.

What Hallie did, you can do. It is the cure. It is the open sesame to the land of peace and plenty. She, in her own words, "cast her burden upon the Lord."

"I went on my knees," says her second letter, which came to me only a few days ago, "and said, 'Oh, Lord, I am wrong. I've made all the mistakes a woman can make. I've done all I could to wreck my life and the lives about me. Set me right. Show me the way!'"

The prayer was answered, of course. That prayer always is. Not by any sudden miracle, but by the slow shifting and changing of life's colors from dark to light. Hallie got up from her knees confident and refreshed, and began to do the thing nearest her with all her might. Washing, cooking, managing the children, she did it all humbly, waiting for guidance. Guidance came. Her aching head cleared; she began to sleep deep. "I felt like wings were under everything, all of a sudden," she writes. "If Bruce's children were cranky, I'd say in my heart, 'Lord, you help them.' I was praying all day long, in my heart."

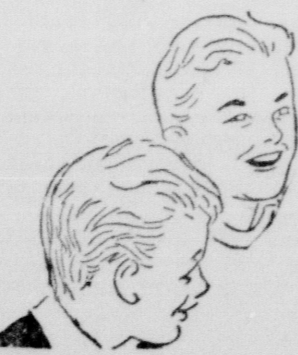

Well, to make a long story short, the sick small boy in a wheel chair was presently transferred to his mother, and financial aid was given for his care. The small cheerful sufferer had an immense influence upon the other children. The atmosphere of the household changed; Hallie was a smiling, beloved wife again. She went on praying—no, not praying exactly, but lifting her heart continually into that clearer purer air that is the realization of God and good. She lives in that atmosphere always.

That is the one great miracle of life. Greater than the atomic bomb is the discovery that shatters the hardness of human hearts and wins them this peace that can face change, poverty, hard work, with a confident smile. The discovery that the Kingdom of Heaven is within you.

Dislikes Nail Polish

President Truman's preferences carry so much weight with his women folk that both the First Lady and Margaret Truman shun colored nail polish because the President doesn't approve of it.

This was revealed by Ray Shaw, who sculpts hands for a living and is currently engaged in modeling Margaret Truman's hands. Miss Shaw said: "Margaret Truman has very interesting hands—delicate and sensitive; the palest hands I have ever seen."

Two step-children.

CABINET LADIES AND MENUS

WASHINGTON. — Ladies of the cabinet are really practicing what their husbands preach regarding the saving of food for Europe. Ever since President Truman urged that the American people eat the equivalent of a European ration two days a week, cabinet wives have been studying menus.

Mrs. Clinton Anderson, whose secretary of agriculture husband is one of the hardest-working of the food conservers, has given permission to publish one of her menus. It provides 1,540 calories — the equivalent of a European ration—as compared with the normal American diet of 3,600 calories.

Here it is, with the number of calories listed after each item of food:

Breakfast—glass of orange juice (75); bowl of cereal (100); milk for cereal (85); half-a-pint of milk or cocoa (170)—total, 430.

Lunch—half-a-cup of thick soup or chowder (150); vegetable salad without oil in dressing (75); muffin (75); baked custard (100); half-a-pint of milk (170)—total, 570.

Dinner — poultry, fish or meat (150); potato (large serving) (150); green vegetable (peas, beans, greens or broccoli) (40); raw vegetable strips (carrots, celery, tomato, cabbage) (50); half-cup of fruit (150) or milk for children—total 540.

TRUMAN'S GIRL FRIEND

The leading lady of the poppy presentation ceremonies to President Truman fell hard for the chief executive.

Three-year-old Betty Lou Hall of Eaton Rapids, Mich., one of five orphaned children left by a heroic infantryman killed after the Normandy invasion, was selected to put the poppy in Truman's lapel in behalf of war orphans of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Her job finished, the little girl was asked by photographers if she didn't want to kiss the President. She complied not with one kiss, but a shower of them. In fact, the young lady seemed inclined to continue this part of the proceedings indefinitely until reminded that her embraces were sufficient for picture purposes.

ARMY MORALS OVERSEAS

One reason for strong sentiment in the senate against drafting 18-year-olds is that many senators have been abroad since V-E Day and have seen first-hand the wanton immorality to which young soldiers are exposed.

Returned senators are especially critical of U. S. army officers for setting a bad example to young G.I.s.

"When they see their superior officers living in German castles with frauleins," reported Sen. Harley Kilgore of West Virginia, "enlisted men get a very bad impression. It's no place for youngsters. After they get to be 21, they can stand on their own feet, but give them a chance to get some education first."

Other senators feel that the army has an obligation to put its house in order before it demands drafting of 18- and 19-year-olds.

"An officer is supposed to set an example to the enlisted man," commented Sen. Ed Johnson of Colorado. "An example of upright living. Some of the examples set by officers in Germany are shocking. Until they clean house they can't expect us to be enthusiastic about the draft."

Case Bill Boomerangs.

Some of the GOP southern coalition who stamped the Case anti-strike bill through the house are singing a different tune in the cloakrooms since the Illinois primary election returns have come in.

One of the most significant battles in this primary was in the district represented by GOP Con. Robert B. Chipfield of Canton, Ill., an all-out advocate of the Case bill.

A fourth-termer, Chipfield boasts that never before has he been opposed in a primary election. However, it was different this year. The Illinoisan not only had an opponent, but he was re-nominated only by the skin of his teeth—approximately 1,300 votes.

Chipfield makes no bones to close friends about the reason for his tight squeak.

"My support of the Case bill came darn close to licking me," he admitted in the GOP cloakroom. "That was the main issue of the campaign."

DIPLOMATIC CHAFF

The Russians brought their families and are prepared to negotiate a long-term trade deal, especially trying to buy the Argentine linseed oil crop. If they succeed, the American home-building program for veterans will be very short of paint. . . . The United States and Great Britain are pressing for an early election in Romania — which the Russians don't seem to want but others do.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery. Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination. There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. causes, and the success of many a song has been linked with her name. They say she's probably launched more hits than any other popular singer, but she won't help launch just any song; it must be a good tune to begin with. If she feels that it's right for her, she studies it, and her flair for phrasing is likely to make the composer feel that she sings it exactly the way he wants it done.

Culminating on August 6, Warner Bros. plans a four months' celebration of the 20th anniversary of talking pictures. A series of special programs will continue on an international scale, honoring the scientists who pioneered in the field and highlighting the scientific development and cultural contribution of the talking picture. It was on August 6, 1926, at the Warner theater in New York, that the public first saw a complete program of motion pictures in which opera stars and concert artists sang and played.

"It Pays to Be Ignorant" returns to the air waves, and there's rejoicing among its many enthusiastic followers. This is one of the few times that a program's been dropped for another one and then brought back to the air when its successor was dropped.

Ever play a Screecherboot? Or a Mountassle? You've heard them if you listen to the Korn Kobblers, on Mutual four nights a week. Like the hand's other instruments, they're made from salvaged tubings, brass piping, etc. Stan Fritts and the other five Korn Kobblers get together in his basement workshop in Elizabeth, N. J., and construct those fantastic instruments they play.

When radio producers need a 3 year old or an 83 year old voice, a talking crow, or any other unusual sound, they call on Miss Cecil Roy. She's also heard regularly on the leading mystery programs, playing anything from a snarling gun-moll to a murdered man's last gurgle. And on "Daily Dilemma," on Mutual, every weekday afternoon, she climaxes her career by enacting all the roles!

When Nan Merriam won the $1,000 prize offered by the National Federation of Music clubs in 1943, the radio program on which she was to sing was the same evening as the big dinner where she'd receive the award. It was the party that interested her most, but she dashed to NBC, did her singing stint, and a few days later was handed a five-year-contract to sing over their stations.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS... by Lynn Chambers

Lemon Chiffon Sponge Cake—Fairy-Like Dessert
(See Recipe Below)

Dessert Tips

The one department in which we always welcome new ideas is in the dessert line. This season it is no different, and even more exciting.

First of all, whipping cream has returned to the market, and we're having great fun using it. Bananas are seen at the markets more frequently and, of course, strawberries are just coming in season plentifully.

Because of the warmer weather, all of us are on the lookout for those cool, cool desserts that just seem to slip down our throats, leaving only their delicate flavor to tease the appetite. My advice to you is serve light meals, well balanced, to be sure, and then top them off with a grand, brand-new dessert!

This first suggestion is tart but smooth and pretty enough for company. If you don't make the cake yourself, buy one ready-made to save time, sugar and energy.

Lemon Chiffon Sponge Cake.
(Serves 8)

1 envelope plain, unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold milk
3 egg yolks
1 cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
½ cup lemon juice
1 tablespoon lemon rind
3 egg whites
1 sponge cake
½ cup chopped nutmeats
½ cup canned, sweet cherries

Soften gelatin in cold milk. Combine slightly beaten egg yolks, sugar and salt. Scald 1 cup milk in double boiler and add very slowly to the egg mixture. Return to the top of the double boiler and cook until of custard consistency. Remove from heat, add softened gelatin and stir until dissolved. Cool, add lemon juice and rind. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Scoop out center of sponge cake and fill hole at bottom with extra pieces of cake taken from sides. Line inside of cake with nuts. Pour in lemon mixture and chill until firm. Garnish dessert with halved and pitted cherries and sprigs of mint if desired.

Caramel Cream Parfait.
(Serves 6)

¼ teaspoon unflavored gelatin
1½ teaspoons cold water
½ cup extra-sweet, light corn syrup

Lynn Says:

Serve a Salad: There's no better way to get fresh vegetables into the diet than via the salad route. Here are combinations which you will like:

Salad greens with one or more of the following: avocado slices, raw carrot or turnip strips, raw cauliflower flowerets, slivered celery, diced or sliced raw cucumber, raw tomatoes, green pepper rings, minced onions.

Serve vegetable salads with a dressing made of oil, herbs, and a bit of crumbled blue cheese.

One or more of the following cooked vegetables makes a pretty salad plate: peas, lima beans, kidney beans, sliced beets, asparagus tips, canned, mixed vegetables, cauliflower or brussels sprouts.

Vary your salad greens often to avoid monotony. Here are a list of greens: young raw spinach, cabbage, chinese or celery cabbage, dandelion greens, chicory or endive, watercress and leaf lettuce.

¼ cup cold water
2 egg whites
1 cup cream, thoroughly chilled
1 teaspoon vanilla

Soften gelatin in cold water for 5 minutes. Boil syrup and ¼ cup water together to the soft ball (238-degree) stage. Pour slowly over stiffly beaten egg whites. Add gelatin and beat until cool. Chill cream and beat until stiff. Fold into cool egg mixture. Add vanilla. Pour into freezing tray; freeze without stirring, until firm.

Variations.

1. Add 1 cup chopped, cooked prunes and ½ cup chopped nuts when whipped cream is folded into mixture.

2. Add 1 cup crushed raspberries when whipped cream is added.

3. Add 1 cup crushed peanut brittle with whipped cream.

4. Add 1 cup crushed pineapple with whipped cream.

Banana Cream.
(Serves 6)

1 medium sized banana
¾ cup confectioners sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons vanilla
1½ pints whipping cream

Slice banana very thin and add to sugar. Mix well. Add lemon juice and cream and pour into freezing tray to freeze until firm. Remove to mixing bowl, add vanilla and beat until mixture becomes very light. Return to freezing tray and freeze again until firm.

Strawberry Meringue Cake.
(Serves 10 to 12)

8 egg whites
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cream of tartar
2 cups sugar
¼ teaspoon lemon extract
Fresh strawberries

Add salt to egg whites and whip until foamy. Add cream of tartar and continue beating until they hold a point. Fold in sugar gradually. Add lemon extract. Pour into a shallow loaf pan lined with waxed paper. Bake in a slow (300-degree) oven for 45 to 50 minutes. Lift from pan onto cake rack and cool. Serve with fresh strawberries topped with whipped cream and garnished with extra whole sugared berries. Peaches or another tart fruit may be used.

There are few desserts more luscious than meringue with chocolate ice cream garnished with mints. Use a very slow oven for baking the meringues, for they really require only enough heat to dry out thoroughly.

Mint Meringues.
(Serves 6)

2 egg whites
¾ cup confectioners sugar
Few grains of salt
Few drops green coloring
1 or 2 drops oil of peppermint
Chocolate ice cream
Whipped cream
Peppermints

Beat egg whites until nearly stiff and add sugar gradually. Beat all the while. Add salt, very pale green coloring and flavor. Mix lightly. Drop by tablespoonfuls on cookie sheet covered with heavy paper. Bake in a slow (275-degree) oven for 30 to 35 minutes until dry on surface. Remove from paper and cool. Pile ice cream in center of plates, place a meringue on each side and garnish ice cream with whipped cream and peppermints on top.

America Gets a Lift
In Morale

The OPA has taken price controls off hammocks, fly swatters, decorative sofa pillows, pocket knives and thermometers among other things. This means a terrific boost to American morale.

The news that hammocks and fly swatters are now within the reach of all is alone enough to lift a heavy feeling from the hearts of the people. These two articles open the way to comfort and peace of mind unknown since Pearl Harbor.

Here is a nation, nervous, morose and apprehensive, under the harassments and confusions of reconversion with all its chaos and befuddlements . . . and suddenly it finds it can get hammocks and fly swatters! The lift is tremendous.

And when you throw in a decorative sofa pillow and a whittling knife, boy, you are guiding the lily.

This release of hammocks, fly swatters, etc., may become the smartest move the Truman administration has made so far. It may mean that the tide against the Democrats has not only been checked but turned the other way.

Millions of Americans are forever emphasizing the part axes, picks, shovels, buffalo guns, surveyors' implements, pack mules and covered wagons have played in building the nation. But the part played by hammocks, fly swatters and whittling knives has been overlooked.

Nearly all epic performances are the result of someone's dream. And the great dreamers have been hammock and fly swatter boys.

OPA freed the hammocks only a few days ago, and already the kicking and squawking that has made us unhappy ever since the end of the war has declined 54 per cent.

It's the most humanizing act of the Truman administration. The world looks lovelier.

President Truman has received free passes to ball games in both big leagues. Now it becomes more certain than ever that the Big Three meetings will have to wait until next winter.

HERE AND THERE

You'll never guess who are John Kieran's favorite movie stars. . . . Kate Hepburn and the cartoon-strip celery-chewing rabbit! . . . Beautiful reading: "The Autobiography of William Allen White, as witness this concerning a childhood sweetheart. . . . 'I can see Agnes Reilly yet in all her loveliness and hear her voice. I remember going bashfully to the spring-wagon when she climbed in with her family to go home. And as the horses jogged away and the spring-wagon faded into the night I stood there watching her out of sight. Nearly every Sunday I hired a horse and buggy and went to see her; life was as lovely as the picture on a cigar box.'"

Ima Dodo attributes her popularity to the fact she has never crossed a nylon line.

It is now possible to print a facsimile newspaper on a radio set. This heralds the era when a subscriber may squawk, "I didn't like last night's edition; the features seemed to be suffering from bulb trouble."

And the announcement, "Owing to the broadcast of a special feature at this time your paper will be cancelled until tomorrow."

Long Broadcast Recorded;
Runs for Fourteen Hours

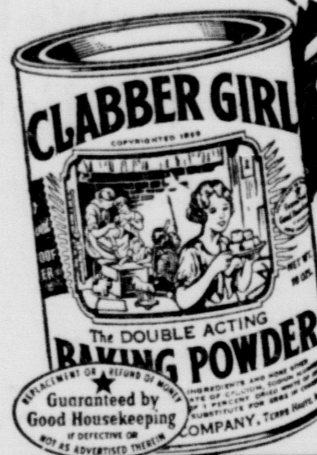

One of the longest radio broadcasts ever recorded completely was that of the coronation of King George of England in 1937, says Collier's. Made in New York by a firm specializing in this work, the recording covers both sides of 108 12-inch records, runs for nearly 14 hours and is priced at $700.

Although a complete set has not been sold, many famous participants in this event have purchased the records containing their voices.

We're doing all we can to serve people waiting for telephones

THE urgent job of getting telephone service to those waiting is going ahead. We are nearing a milestone: Soon everyone who needs only a telephone instrument itself to get service will have it. That shortage is about over.

In the first three months of this year we have installed 150,000 new telephones in the five states we serve. This is as many as we would have installed in six months of a normal year.

Although 170,000 new applicants for service during this time kept the waiting list long (223,000 in the Southwest as April began), we now are getting service faster to those waiting longest. A great many of the people waiting for service on V-J Day now have it.

Two big jobs remain:

- As quickly as we can get it, we are wiring the precision, intricate machinery that handles your calls at the exchange. This takes time and skill. We must do years of work in the next few months.

- In a great many places we also need outside cable and wire. We plan to have this in and ready when the new equipment in the telephone office is completed. Where we can, we are wiring homes in advance for telephones, ready to connect them the moment we are able.

Meanwhile, we are trying every way we know to s-t-r-e-t-c-h the service... and we are temporarily squeezing in everyone we can with party lines, hooking more telephones to already loaded switchboards and dial equipment, putting disconnected lines back into service faster. If for a while telephone service is not always as fast as you'd like it, it is because of this crowding.

We repeat: The telephone company is doing all it can to provide service for waiting customers. We're looking forward to the day we get in touch with you to arrange the details of installing your telephone.

CONTRACTS AWARDED BY STATE HIGHWAY DEPT. FOR MEDINA WORK

County Judge Arthur H. Rothe in receipt of two communications May 7th from F. S. Maddox, District Engineer for the Texas Highway Department, announcing awarding of contracts by the Highway Commission for road work in Medina County, to get under way at short order.

Contract for the construction of a bridge over Hondo Creek, on Highway 173, between Hondo and Devine, has been awarded to M. B. Killian of San Antonio. The company of the bid was not given out, but it is in keeping with the fact that construction costs in this area are high, as soon as vital materials are secured.

The Commission awarded the contract to Holland Page of Austin and set order issued for work on Highway 90 in the County. This involves construction of highway from point one mile West of Castroville to Hondo Creek, including overpass over the main line of the Southern Railway near Dunlay. The contractor has advised Mr. Maddox they plan to begin clearing of brush and cutting structure within a week or ten days, and that within the next three or four weeks concrete work will start. The bid involved approximately $50,000.

STREET SETTING FOR BIG FIREMEN'S BENEFIT

Quite a few years ago the Hondo Fire Department set a precedent hard to equal in the way of public entertainment with its Street Race and Carnival. Each time, however, the firemen surpass their own efforts in presenting a gala affair. This Saturday night's event, May 11th, will prove no exception. The street in front of the courthouse will again be the setting for the dance, keno stands and other attractions. The music for dancing will be provided by the Sub-Depot Orchestra, and you may get your tickets now from any member of the Fire Department or that night on the grounds. Three valuable attendance prizes will also be awarded.

A large crowd is expected to attend, the citizens of Hondo, aided by bands from neighboring communities and towns, always proving generous in a worthy cause—this time to raise funds to the high standard in efficiency and equipment upon which the people have justly come to rely.

"Have a Good Time and Help a Good Cause"—Saturday night, May 11th, Courthouse square in Hondo.

AN ANTONIO DELEGATION TO PRESENT CHARTER TO HONDO B&PW CLUB

President Lucille Newton of the Hondo Business and Professional Women's Club called a Director's meeting last night for the purpose of making final arrangements for presentation of the Club's Charter Tuesday night, May 14th. A delegation of fifteen or more members of the San Antonio B&PW Club, "mother" of the local organization, plans to attend and the charter will be presented by Mrs. Marion B. Grell, President of the San Antonio club. The affair will be an informal, friendly gathering during which supper will be served.

Several members of the sister club from the Alamo City will give short talks on the Federation and its objectives, and discussion will be held on the problem of a club in a small community.

HONDO POST NINE DEFEATS OWLS

The A. Pruneda Post, No. 529, American Legion baseball nine defeated the Hondo Owls 9 to 6 in a hard fought game at the Plaza diamond Wednesday afternoon.

In the opening inning with a man on base, Tommy Finger connected with a fast ball from Hernandez for a homer, scoring the base runner ahead of him.

The Legionnaires, not to be outdone, duplicated the feat their turn, but when Herrera singled and Pruneda connected for a homer off Anton Taylor. From there on the game was a toss-up, but the Legion finally came out with a 9 to 6 win.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Nietenhoefer are enjoying a visit from Mr. Mrs. George Callan of Colorado City, Texas. The ladies are sisters and Mr. Callan, incidentally, is prospecting with view to locate near Hondo.

Gus Benke, proprietor of the former M. T. Schuchart Polled Hereford ranch west of D'Hanis, was a business caller at this office Tuesday. Mr. Benke is offering some of his choice young bulls for sale.

Master Sgt. John C. Ice left last week for Greensboro, North Carolina, from where he expects to be sent to the Caribbean area for duty. Sgt. Ice recently reenlisted. His wife, the former Frances Van Fleet, and baby are staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Van Fleet, for the present.

Mrs. R. J. Ney, Mrs. Henry Nehr, Mrs. Melvin Weyand, and the Home Demonstration agent, Mrs. Christine R. Mayberry, were in Uvalde Monday where they attended a meeting conducted by Mrs. Eloise T. Johnson, Extension Specialist in Family Life Education. Club women from Kerr, Bander, Medina and Uvalde counties were in attendance.

In a note from Mrs. John E. Barden, the former Mary Lois Barnes, we learned that she and Mr. Barden have bought a home in Garden Oaks, a suburban section in the northwestern part of Houston, and they will move in June 1st. The home was built in 1941 on an oversized lot with pine and oak trees, and Mr. and Mrs. Barden and their children are looking forward to moving into their own home.

Lt. (jg) and Mrs. Clinton L. Grell arrived here last week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Grell. Clint received his release to inactive duty in the U. S. Naval Reserve at Camp Wallace, Texas, on April 29th, and is now on terminal leave. His wife was formerly Miss Adele Vanden Hewel of Chicago, Illinois. They were married in Chicago January 14th of this year. Clint is a B. B. A. graduate of the University of Texas and is undecided at this time as to what his future plans will be.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Beal, after a visit of some two weeks to relatives here and in San Antonio, bid Mr. Beal's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Beal, and many old time friends good bye and took the west-bound Monday morning bus on the first leg of their return journey to their home in California. They planned to stop at Uvalde and visit a sister of Mrs. Beal's, Mrs. Maude Clark, and again at Tucson, Arizona, where they have a married son. Mrs. Beal is one of the popular Tevebaugh sisters, daughter of a pioneer family of Hondo.

M. H. Saathoff, Dunlay's new merchant was over from that burg Monday and announces in this paper the purchase by himself of the Louis A. Haby mercantile business at that place, to reopen under his own ownership May 22nd after being closed for two days previous for making the transfer. The Haby store at Dunlay is among the oldest in Medina County, being over fifty years old. During this long service to the public, few if any businesses ever enjoyed a greater share of good will. We wish it a continuance of the same under Mr. Saathoff's ownership.

COUNTY HEALTH UNIT NOTES

With a total of 5,906 cases of mumps having been reported in Texas in the first seventeen weeks of this year, Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued a statement stressing the fact that the contagion factor exists before symptoms appear, and urging strict isolation of all patients, in order to control the spread of this disease.

Mumps is transmitted by direct contact with an infected person and with articles freshly soiled by secretions or discharges from the mouth or nose of persons having the disease. It takes from 12 to 26 days for mumps to manifest itself after infection takes place. The disease can be easily transmitted, but one attack usually establishes immunity although second attacks sometimes occur.

The most easily recognizable characteristic symptom of mumps is a painful swelling of the salivary glands. Sometimes there is an involvement of other portions of the body causing disturbances in the digestive, nervous, circulatory, and genito-urinary systems. The disease is usually accompanied by a temperature rise which more often than not is mild.

The patient suffering with this disease should be isolated from other members of the family immediately upon the suspicion that mumps exists, and the family physician should be called promptly. "Dr. Cox advises, "In the meantime, complete rest in bed is indicated. The doctor's orders should be followed strictly. Violating his instructions can lead to serious injury, which may permanently affect the individual's health."

CASTROVILLE REJECTS INCORPORATION

At an election held Tuesday, May 7, 1946, in Castroville to determine whether that town should incorporate for municipal purposes, the proposal was defeated by a majority of 30 voters.

The figures as reported to this paper are as follows:

For Incorporation ..... 80
Against ..... 119
Mutulated Ballots ..... 3

Total Votes Cast ..... 193
Majority Against ..... 30

Back in the days when Castroville was the county-seat it was an incorporated village, but nearly 50 years ago, after loss of the county-seat, incorporation was voted out.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Good Trees
and Good Taverns

About the finest stand of timber in our county is on Asa Fullmore's farm. Asa says it's due to "regulation"—checking on trees that don't come up to standard, and trimming them off to give the other trees a chance for healthy livelihood.

He was explaining it to us in Andy Botkin's Garden Tavern, and Andy nodded approvingly.

"The same goes for any industry," says Andy. "Like the brewers who give us tavern keepers beer to sell. If they find the place isn't up to standard—clean and courteous and wholesome—they start giving warning. Then, if the warning isn't heeded, they start trimming!"

From where I sit, self-regulation within the brewing industry has done as much to give us pleasant, wholesome places to enjoy a moderate glass of beer, as Asa Fullmore's forestry has done to keep his white pines tall and healthy. It's nature's own protection—and the best there is!

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

Today I doff my chapeau to the Old Dominion—and to the Governor of same. That Governor gent—he is made of prime stuff. His vertebrae is not synthetic! It is okay with him, he says, if you choose to join a union or not join a union—it is up to you—but you get tough about it and start pushing other people around and interfering with the peace and tranquility of Virginia, there is gonna be some pushin' back. He will do the pushin' back. It is refreshing to see such stamina versus like out where the Governor of California had started for the opening of the season ball game, but where a couple pickets got there first, and the Gov. turned around and sneaked home. Of all the sad things that our U. S. A. puts up with—but should not—it is with pickets. With mosquitos we can get a fly spray that works pretty good but with pickets, we hesitate. Anyway, we been doin' so quite regular, until this old Virginia Soreback got his dander up. That boy is no sissie. He should have 3 cheers—and a pat on the back. He is no mediocre kind of governor. Yours with the low down,

SOCIAL "INSECURITY" PLANS

Estimates of the cost of a comprehensive system of compulsory social security in this country are staggering, ranging as high as 25 percent of the income of every gainfully employed person. That these estimates may not be far wrong, is indicated by England's experiments with social security. A bill has been submitted to the House of Commons which includes provisions similar to those set forth in the Wagner bill—the American version of "all out" compulsory social security.

According to the New York Times, "It has been calculated that with the new bill, and on the assumption that not more than 5 per cent of the employable population will be unemployed on the average, the British government will be taking about 24 per cent of the gross income of individuals in compulsory contributions for social security and other forms of social services."

The tragic part of these "social security" proposals is that they seize by law what most people would otherwise be able to class as "savings." After 25 per cent of an average person's income is arbitrarily deducted by government, he will have precious little cash or incentive left to provide for his own future. Moreover, payment under the government program couldn't keep a church mouse alive and healthy in these days of inflation.

A MATTER OF MIGHT

There is one thing that is never discussed publicly in connection with strikes which are called to the detriment of the whole nation—namely, the right to work.

Today, labor unions calmly announce when they strike that picket lines will be established, and any man crossing such line will do so at his peril. And men who want to work are not allowed to "cross" that line. Apparently there is no political will on the part of Federal, state or municipal government to protect non-striking or non-union workmen in their constitutional right to work unmolested.

Suppose, however, you, as an individual, did not like a clerk in a store, and decided to become a one-man picket and prevent that clerk from entering the store. You would land in jail as quickly as a policeman could be called.

The moral seems to be that the right to maintain picket lines and prevent men from working is not so much a matter of law as a matter of might.

If you are big enough, you can defy the law—if you are small enough, you are subject to the law. What a travesty on justice in a nation which boasts of freedom.

Snood Nets Enhance Smart Hair Styles

NETS for the smart coiffures of feminine heads know no age, the Rural Home editor of nationally circulated Capper's Farmer points out.

For the young mother, busy from sunrise to sundown with her youngsters, the snood net shown in the accompanying illustration offers a wise hair style, this expert declares. It is one of the types designed by Lily Dache. Tied with ribbons, it stays in place, insuring a sleek look all day long.

Whether the wearer is a junior miss or matron, she will find a net to enhance her hair-do. A teenager ready for any party pulls her hair smoothly back from her face and covers the roll with a snood net trimmed with a bow to match her blouse. A smart girl on a date can win approving looks with a bright red net accented by a cross-grain ribbon headband.

For a mature woman achieving elegance with an upswept coiffure, two mesh nets are suggested. One goes over hair in back to keep it neat. The other can cover her soft front curls. A young matron who fashions her own head gear for spring will tie on a green snood with two green bows. Spring flowers will provide softening touches on the sides.

Simplified Shopping For Home Furnishings

GOOD news for rural families is the announcement that home furnishings in properly matching and contrasting colors soon will be available, the Rural Home Editor of nationally circulated Capper's Farmer points out.

More than 200 manufacturers have formed the Home Furnishings Style Council. All of them will use the same nine basic colors in designing certain lines of their merchandise.

For homemakers this means simplified shopping for everything from floor coverings through furnishings, drapery materials, linoleum, upholstery, Venetian blinds, paint and wall papers, points out this Capper's Farmer expert.

Colors were chosen according to those most popular for homes today and named after sections of the United States. They are green (Shenandoah Group), tan (Alamo Group), mauve (Prairie Group), rose (Grand Canyon Group), gray, (Great Smoky Group), cedar, (Santa Fe Group), blue (Great Lakes Group), burgundy (Adirondack Group), and beige (Cape Cod Group). Each group has been broken down into tones and shades from the lightest to the darkest values.

Some of these items are already available, but many stores may not have them until September.

Crown Fruit Salad Is 'Fit for a King'

"Fit for a king" is what home makers say about crown shaped fruit salad, according to the Country Cooking editor of Capper's Farmer, nationally-circulated farm magazine.

"Studded with jewel-colored pieces of fruit, it makes a lovely picture on your prettiest glass plate," she writes in the magazine read by 1,250,000 farm families. "Cool and tartly sweet it offers a flavor contrast to the meat-and-potato part of a meal. It's a delightful afternoon snack with a cup of hot coffee."

Crown Fruit Salad
 1 cup, unadorned gelatin
 1 cup, cold water
 1 cup, fruit juice
 1 cup, fruit
 1 cup, cream
 1 cup, sugar
 1 cup, vanilla
 1 cup, light cream
 1 cup, mayonnaise
 1 cup, crushed berries or peach
 1 cup, sliced cherries
 1 cup, sliced pineapple
 1 cup, maraschino cherries

Soak gelatin in cold water. Heat fruit juice or juices to boiling; remove from heat and dissolve gelatin in hot juice. Cool. Add the light cream and mayonnaise and stir until mixture is smooth. Cool until mixture is slightly thickened; then add sliced fruit and halved cherries. Pour into a mold rinsed in cold water. Chill until firm. Unmold on glass plate or platter. Arrange lettuce leaves around the edge of the salad. Garnish with clusters of grapes, halves of bananas or slices of canned fruit. Serves six. This molded fruit salad is lovely to serve as a buffet supper.

SHERIFF'S FINGERPRINT MACHINE GETS FAST RESULTS

The Medina County Sheriff's department recently installed a fingerprinting machine which already has been put to use with satisfactory results. On April 15th in District Court Raymundo Botello was sentenced to two years in the State penitentiary for assault with intent to murder. Sheriff Fusselman and his staff fingerprinted the prisoner and returns from FBI headquarters this week reveal that Botello had traveled under an alias and had a police record in North Texas.

Following the speedy disposition of the criminal case of robbery by assault last week in District Court which netted Cecil Edward Griffith 40 years in the State penitentiary, further information has been received by the local authorities about the ex-convict. Checking of fingerprints, photographs and other records sent to the FBI by Sheriff Fusselman uncovered information regarding several other robberies perpetrated by Griffith in Canton, Ohio.

Griffith's victim, Donald H. Olsen, left last weekend for San Antonio to visit relatives until he has further recovered from his recent ordeal at the hands of the highjacker. From there he will continue on to his destination in New Orleans.

WESLEYAN GUILD HAS PROGRAM MEETING

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the Hondo Methodist Church met at 7 p. m. Thursday night, May 2nd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brucks with Miss Darlene Brucks as hostess. The home was beautifully decorated with profusions of vari-colored sweetpeas. The dining table was centered with a crystal epergne of sweetpeas and tiny pink wax flowers with centers of miniature lighted pink candles.

The devotional was led by Mrs. Amos Harillee, the topic being "Builders of Peace for Tomorrow." Miss Ramona Bailey presented the program on the subject "Children Through Peace."

A short business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Christine R. Mayberry.

The hostess served refreshments of sandwiches, olives, pickles, fritos, nut cookies, cream puffs and punch. The next meeting of the Guild will be at 8 p. m. June 6th, in the Recreation hall of the Navigation Village Community Center. Mrs. J. F. Delaney will be the hostess.

HOME DEMONSTRATION COUNCIL TO MEET

All club presidents, council delegates and committees should be present. The reports of delegates to the District Home Demonstration Association meeting in Beeville Friday will be given and the final report on the county-wide barbecue will be made.

TO MOTHER

Who rocked you to sleep in your childhood?
 Who soothed all your sorrow and pain?
 Who sat at your bedside in sickness?
 Who's love is always the same?

I long to see you, dear mother.
 Your sweet smiling face once more.
 Your voice that was loving and tender.
 When you'd meet us in the old kitchen door.

They have hid you from sight forever.
 Over where the wild daisies bloom.
 May you sleep in peace dear mother.

For it's no longer "Home Sweet Home."

As I sit in your old wooden rocker,
 Your chair that no other can fill.
 I can see your picture as ever.
 In the old home up on the hill.

UNITED GAS EXPANDING

United Gas Pipe Line Company's new gasoline plant at Carthage, Texas, will go into operation early this month, it was announced today in the company's general offices at Shreveport.

The new plant, the final link in United's extensive development project in East Texas, will process 150,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas daily (100,000,000 cubic feet completely and 50,000,000 partially) and is an important step in the conservation of the valuable constituents of the raw production from Carthage gas condensate field, it was said.

Average daily recovery of the plant has been estimated at 150,000 gallons of such products as motor fuel, gasoline, kerosene, liquified petroleum gases, butanes, propanes, naptha, and other products, revenue from which otherwise would be lost.

A gathering system of more than 100 miles of lines will connect the plant with 81 wells in the Carthage field. Discovered in 1936, the field produces from four zones, varying from 5,000 to 6,500 feet in depth, and present proven acreage of the field stands at more than 210,000 acres.

The gas, after processing in the gasoline plant, will then be dehydrated and put into the United main pipe line system; the liquid products extracted will be moved to market by tank trucks and railroad tank cars.

In addition to the gasoline and dehydration plants, the Carthage installation includes plant employees' housing facilities and radio station KUHC, one of the key stations in United's new FM network serving its 24-inch Carthage-Sterlington pipe line.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

CONGRESS HAS NOT DESTROYED OPA

WASHINGTON.—The overlooked fact in most accounts of the house OPA continuance was that the legislation proposed extension until next March 31, nine months more. The way some of the stories read you might think discontinuance was immediate. The opposition statements of Messrs. Bowles and Porter absorbed attention of the reporters entirely. When the extension date was mentioned, it frequently was presented as I have done above, in a confusing way. Actually, the extension works out to be more than 11 months from now, and nine months beyond the expiration date of OPA powers on June 30.

Bowles

A lot of water may go over many dams in the next 11 months and the continuance of the government's powers to act against prices for that long a time could hardly be called destructive of OPA.

What angered the administration to unusual bitterness against the bill were the amendments. One amendment proposed what was generally described as "cost plus reasonable profits to producers and handlers." OPA contended this would upset their ceilings on many of the major items of production, autos, rubber and such. This would depend upon whether their ceilings now deny "cost plus profit" on these items and it would require a skilled mathematician a week to figure out the involved formula for one item. Frankly I would not attempt to referee this argument.

NEARLY YEAR LEFT FOR NEW ADJUSTMENTS

Certainly, however, the general notion of "cost plus a reasonable profit" does not sound like an unreasonable invasion of the consumers' rights, or what OPA is supposed to have been doing.

There was one amendment which seemed to me logically what might possibly be called "murderous" of OPA, as one irate Democratic congressman termed the bill, which was approved on a final passage by 205 Democrats, including himself, and 148 Republicans. This was the one to drop control over certain articles when their production reaches the level of production of the year July 1, 1940, to June 30, 1941—which was far from the "peak year" it was described to be in one of the accounts. Production did not reach a peak until the last year of the war.

Now it would be entirely logical and sensible for price controls to be removed the moment production reaches current demand. Of course current consumer demand is greater than July, 1940-June, 1941. It is very much greater, due to the accumulation of demand for consumer goods during the war. It might be "murderous" to OPA to impose that new formula on cessation of regulations, but it would be what fairness demands. Relief of regulations should be timed to the period when production can care for the present demand, when the pressure of shortages for higher prices has been relieved.

The other important amendment called for gradual elimination of subsidies. Frankly, I have never liked subsidies. The theory is wrong to pay from the treasury, which is the money of all the people (and their debt now is heavy), a certain portion of the price which should be paid by the man who buys the article. Not even Mr. Truman has defended subsidies as a permanent proposition. Whether the time limit fixed by the house would work efficiently, again calls for intricate technical knowledge of the effect of the removal on each article at each time.

A revision of the bill by the senate is being prophesied by most authorities, but it is not likely to be a full-power lease of existing authority as the administration has been demanding.

Not only have the party chieftains exhibited confusion in a series of ridiculous "mistakes" as to whether they are running Mr. Truman or congress this year, but they have been building up a sideline campaign on the Roosevelt heir. First one member of the Roosevelt family was trotted out as a prospective candidate for governor of New York; a young man without previous experience or political pretensions, who, if he wanted to start as his father did at that age, would run for the town council.

Food Is World's Big Problem Today

30 Million European Children Face Famine; Act to Increase Production of Cheap Clothing

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

FOOD: Children's Need

Having always maintained that first care must go to children if a race is to survive, Herbert Hoover and his advisers studying the world food situation for President Truman urged extra feeding of Europe's undernourished youngsters to avert starvation or abnormal development.

From 200 to 300 million dollars will be needed for supplementary feeding of 30 million seriously underfed European children, Hoover's advisers said. This contrasts with the 80 million dollars spent after World War I to provide extra food for 10 million youngsters.

• In Poland, where the height, weight and age ratio is said to be the worst in Europe, 340,000 children must be cared for in institutions and an additional 2,400,000 require extra food and clothing.

• While all fresh milk supplies are earmarked for children in Germany, infant mortality for February was 14.6 per 1,000. Next to Poland, the Reich's needs perhaps are greatest, with the people's organizing ability helping to somewhat relieve the situation.

• In Austria, most of Vienna's 90,000 children get a bowl of watery soup and a one ounce roll daily, with Swedish, Swiss, Danish and U. S. charitable organizations providing relief for only about 10 to 20 per cent of needs.

• Of Yugoslavia's 1 million children in need of supplementary feeding, 120,000 are orphans and 450,000 have only one parent. Infant mortality is 21 per 1,000.

Meanwhile, U. S. millers and food manufacturers held production of flour and wheat preparations to 75 per cent of the amount used in the corresponding period of 1945 as part of the government program to conserve grain for relief shipment overseas.

At the same time, farmers were being urged to sell wheat to the government for a 30 cent a bushel bonus to permit accumulation of sufficient stocks to meet the pressing overseas need. To assure adequate feed to help replace wheat, the government also offered farmers a premium of 30 cents a bushel on corn.

TEXTILES:

Restore Controls

Intensifying its efforts to spur the production of inexpensive clothing, the government restored wartime control over textile manufacturers and granted additional price increases to increase the output of cheaper material.

To assure supplies of certain cheaper material, the Civilian Production Administration ordered mills to employ the same number of spindles for specified cotton yarns as they did on December 31, 1945. As a result, production for shirts, shorts, work clothes, men's suits, hosiery, sewing thread, towel and cotton duck is expected to increase to 235 million pounds for each remaining quarter of this year.

At the same time, the OPA ordered manufacturers to set aside from 30 to 85 per cent of certain types of cotton yarn to meet the needs for knit hosiery and underwear; woolen and worsted fabrics and agricultural and industrial goods.

Together with earlier increases for cotton fabric, a 5 per cent boost in price ceilings for combed and carded yarns is designed to help achieve a 50 per cent rise in output of such essential items as work clothes, wearing apparel and agricultural and industrial goods.

DIVORCES:

Throughout the English-speaking world the astronomical increase in divorce brought on as an aftermath of World War II gave rise to general alarms and revolutionary outlooks upon marriage and the family. Prof. Ernest R. Groves has stated in an article prepared for the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Whereas in 1914 there had been 600 divorces in all England, in 1945 in London alone there were 4,000 divorce cases waiting to be heard.

Professor Groves lists the causes of the great boom in divorce mills as imprudent, hasty marriages, marriages made for such ulterior motives as receiving government allowances allotted to wives of servicemen, "passion marriages" and marriages that had no proper start because of the hectic circumstances before the husbands went overseas.

Another factor contributing its part to marital breakdowns was unfaithfulness of wives, either real or imagined by servicemen returning from overseas.

POLITICS:

Party Line

Addressing the National Citizens' Political Action committee in San Francisco, Calif., Secretary of Commerce Henry A. Wallace raised the age-old American political question of party loyalty, declaring that congressmen who renounce their party program should be disciplined.

Stating that even Calvin Coolidge and Herbert Hoover had subscribed to the principle of party loyalty, Wallace said that once the party had agreed upon an issue, each congressional member should go along.

No Mistaking 'Jerk' Now

Though it is supposed that present-day Americans know what a "jerk" is—especially if they themselves happen to be annoyed by a bothersome person—they will be able to find the meaning of the expression in the new 150,000 word abridged Funk and Wagnall's dictionary to appear this fall.

Mercifully defining a "jerk" as "an unpopular person," the word is just one of several flippant but widely used expressions to be listed in the dictionary. Thumbing the pages, a reader also will find:

Jive—The jargon of swing music; also swing music.

Corn—Trite, banal, especially jazz rendered in a sweet or sentimental manner.

WASHINGTON DIGEST

Food Shipments Will Help Write the Peace in Europe

By BAUKHAGE

News Analyst and Commentator.

WNU Service, 1616 Eye Street, N.W., Washington, D. C.

Since Good Friday, when you heard a President and an ex-President speaking on the same radio program, one in the White House, the other across the Atlantic in Egypt, you have read and heard many other appeals in preparation for a drive which will start shortly to get food to five hundred million starving men, women and children in Europe and Asia.

The voluntary effort to cut down food consumption simply hasn't worked.

It isn't that the people are unwilling. It's that there was no immediate way to cut down on our eating which seemed practical. And so a practical means of getting food in cans is to be tried, and its success will depend on the local volunteer organization in your community. The foods needed are milk (condensed, evaporated or dried), meat, fish, peanut butter, baby foods, baked beans, juices, stews, soups, honey, vegetables.

I know that you have heard this before in detail. I hope you will hear it again, with further details, but perhaps you don't realize what you and the United States can get in return for the food we send out, and what we may lose if starvation becomes widespread.

The whole question is pointed up in a not-too-prominently displayed dispatch from Moscow to which an official called my attention last week. It was a statement made by a correspondent of the Soviet paper Ivestia, who had been touring the American zone in Germany.

"The food stuff difficulties which forced lowering of rations (in the American zone)," the correspondent wrote, "are explained, in my view, not so much by the absence of productive districts as by a lack of order and distribution of agricultural products." Then he went on to explain that the big estates had not been broken up, as they were in the Russian zone.

Hunger Used as Political Weapon

This criticism, which I think investigation will prove to be exceedingly biased and unfair, reveals how food, or the lack of it, is serving and can serve as a weapon to stir up discontent and to bring the western countries into disrepute and disfavor.

Revolution follows hunger just as surely as hunger follows war.

As a matter of fact, one of the most efficient organizations in the American military zone of Germany is the agency which distributes food. Working closely with it is another highly efficient American agency which the British have used as a model in their zone—the health and sanitation division.

However, there is a food shortage in Germany, just as there is in the rest of Europe. The effects are the same everywhere, and Germany serves as an excellent example of the political effects of a food shortage. There, the American authorities can accurately check on what is going on since the military government is so closely tied in to every phase of the daily lives of the people.

Recently a military government official in Germany wrote to me: "No slogan was ever truer than 'Food will win the war and write the peace.'"

We are about to sit down at the peace table with Italy. Russia probably will not be present. But the food that Italy does not have may affect the validity of that peace treaty.

A revealing comment on how this works was appended to a report made shortly after the British were forced to drop to a 1,000-calorie scale and coal production dropped approximately 20 per cent. This was the comment:

"Heavy workers are dropping at their work and food riots have already taken place. If this ration is not raised soon, there will be no coal; without coal there will be no transportation; without coal and transportation, there will be no processing of food from indigenous resources. . . .

"The fact that we now have to go back on our pledged word to the German people will seriously impair our prestige and the confidence of the German people in the pledged word of our officials. This will give to those who oppose our economic system the best weapon they have ever received. As fast as possible, we are losing all the advantages gained by the success of arms. We are losing the peace much faster than at the close of World War I. The first great blow has been the food muddle. Others will pile up like a snowball. . . .

"It appears that we will have to reduce the already inadequate ration for Berlin. This, of course, will give the Russians a strong talking point against the western powers when we cannot afford to sustain the 1,550-calorie ration for the normal consumer. . . .

And so the path of our friend, the reporter from Ivestia, crosses that of the American official. Clearly we see the different segments of the picture which opponents of western democracy have sketched in no faint strokes across the troubled world.

Yes, indeed, food will write the peace!

People everywhere are finding marvelous relief from painful symptoms of bladder irritation caused by excess acidity in the urine. DR. KILMER'S SWAMP ROOT acts fast on the kidneys to ease discomfort by promoting the flow of urine. This pure herbal medicine is especially welcome where bladder irritation due to excess acidity is responsible for "getting up at night." A carefully blended combination of 14 herbs, roots, vegetables, balsams, Dr. Kilmer's contains nothing harmful. Just good ingredients that every one has a marvelous effect. All druggists sell Swamp Root.

With typical American ingenuity, the Sands of Chicago, Ill., solved housing shortage by buying old street car for $200 and converting it into dwelling. This is one of several hundred old trolley cars which were sold by a street railway company to veterans rather than burn them as is usually done.

IT'S NIP AND TUCK

OPA Fight Continues in Senate

WASHINGTON.—An all-out battle is on, with manufacturers and wholesalers on one side and the CIO and various consumer groups on the other, over the crippled OPA extension bill which was passed by the house and is now being considered by the senate.

Never in history has the consideration of a bill before the senate brought such an avalanche of mail from John Q. Citizen and his missus. They want to be heard, and they are demanding extension of full price control to four to one. Most representatives and senators say their mail is so heavy that it cannot be answered.

Chester Bowles, director of economic stabilization, has appealed to the nation's business men to join with their customers in support of effective price control legislation that would "keep inflation from overwhelming our economy."

Bowles, in effect, urged individual manufacturers and merchants to repudiate the view of the National Association of Manufacturers and other organized business groups reflected in the house-approved price control extension bill which would cripple the Office of Price Administration.

Appeal Made on Radio

His appeal was made in a nationwide broadcast a few hours after the Chamber of Commerce of the United States had asked the senate banking and currency committee to end all price controls, with the exception of rent, on October 31, and for the elimination of rent control on March 31, 1947.

Bowles expressed doubt that the "various minority groups"—the N.A.M., the chamber of commerce and other organizations—accurately represented the viewpoint of a majority of industrialists and other business men.

Word from Sarasota, Fla., where rent ceilings were abolished on January 1, indicates that rents have jumped from 30 to 100 per cent. Roger G. Flory, who was active in ousting rent control in Sarasota, declares such advances have been exceptions, but many returning servicemen disagree with him.

At Kansas City, the OPA has charged that the big packers have gone on a buying strike and are "just refusing to buy" cattle for slaughter. In Chicago, W. S. Clithero, vice president of Armour and company, immediately wired Chester Bowles that the charges were unfounded.

South Carolina

The Palmetto State

NORTH CAROLINA

NORTH CAROLINA

By EDWARD EMERINE
WNU Features.

"WHY not enjoy living? We do!"

Backed by over 400 years of history, tradition and romance, soft-spoken South Carolina is still glamorous and appealing. Consider for a moment that 90 per cent of the South Carolinians in the armed forces, when polled, indicated their intention of returning to their native state when they got out of uniform! Though they had seen the world, they found nothing to lure them away from the Low country, the Up country, and the Piedmont in between.

South Carolina has had a glorious past. But also it has a future! It endured terrible years of Reconstruction following the War Between the States, and it was not until the turn of the century that order came out of chaos. Then South Carolina was aware of itself again, ready to cope with its problems in the light of progress.

Each decade has seen improvement, and a further step toward the fulfillment of its destiny. South Carolina is vibrant with new life, new energies, and a will to progress. Wealth has been introduced by textile and other industries, including plastics and chemicals. Soil reclamation, reforestation, flood control, hydro-electric development — those are the projects of today. Agriculture has been spurred to new heights by scientific aids. Fields of cotton, corn, tobacco and peanuts still remain; but new crops have been added and more will come. And new industries too, for South Carolina is rich in natural resources, many of them as yet undeveloped.

"Open for business," South Carolina advertises, and points to excellent highways, rail and water transportation, and main routes of airplane travel. Favored by a mild all-year climate, it beckons to those who want a home, pleasure, jobs, business, manufacturing, farming and a good life.

More than 80 years before Virginia was founded and over 90 years before the Puritans reached Massachusetts, a white settlement was founded on what is now Winyah bay

RANSOME J. WILLIAMS
Governor of South Carolina

in the Low country. It was the ill-fated Spanish settlement of San Miguel de Gualdape.

Other Spaniards came, De Soto and Juan Pardo, to explore the interior about the Savannah river. Competing with the Spaniards were the French, who in 1562 briefly settled a body of Huguenots at Port Royal. None of these ventures endured, however, and it was left to the English to establish permanent settlements.

Charles I in 1629 granted to Sir Robert Heath "all America from sea to sea between the 36th and 31st parallels of latitude under the name of Carolina." Even then the country remained unexplored until 1663 when Charles II chartered the same territory to eight of his loyal friends. They became lord proprietors of the province of Carolina. In March, 1670, the first settlement, consisting of 148 persons, was made at Albemarle Point and named Charles Town, the Charleston of today.

Cavaliers and Puritans came from England to swell the population. The fame of Carolina sunshine spread, and the story of its fertile soil was repeated in many lands. From across the sea and from other American colonies they came, until there were Cavaliers, Puritans, French Huguenots, Irish, Dutch and Germans. Many Quakers arrived early, and one of them, John Arch-lade, served as governor of the province. Later more than a thousand suffering Acadians found a refuge and a home. Added to all these were the Negroes, bringing an unsuspected gift of rhythm, and furnishing the sinews for the struggle to build a new land.

Like all colonists they brought with them old hatreds and differences of class and creed. Some came for riches, some for adventure, others sought relief from religious persecution. They quarreled often among themselves, but stood together against any common enemy. They repulsed the attacking Indians and they fought off pirates from the coast. In 1718 at Charleston, 49 pirates swung from the gallows in one month, with 22 of them dangling there one day. They fought for the right of local self-government. They overthrew the proprietary government and became a royal province under the king's charter. They finally revolted against the king himself, and became one of the 13 original American colonies. They reasserted themselves again in 1860, and there followed the Civil war.

Through all the years, in massacre and war, through storm and fire, despite earthquake and pestilence, the people of South Carolina struggled on. They explored the wilderness and located new towns and more plantations. They built roads through forests and swamps, and threw bridges across rivers and streams. They built houses of "tabby"—a composition of crushed oyster shell—and of thick hardwood logs. They spread out from the Low country to the Up country. They built for beauty and utility and discovered the dignity of life.

"Charleston is the place where the Ashley and Cooper rivers meet to form the Atlantic ocean," is the traditional geography lesson of a Charleston child — a lesson as significant as it is descriptive. Men and women of South Carolina believe in themselves, in their state, and in their destiny. They have produced leisure, culture and a high responsibility of citizenship. They have drawn character from the land itself, and courage and integrity from their labors. More than 250 years of war-torn history have molded and tempered and strengthened a people until they know their metal.

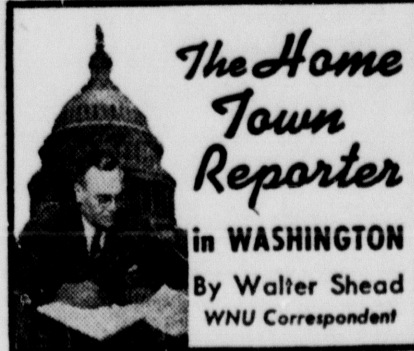

Gloriously patriotic in World Wars I and II, South Carolina has furnished, fed and trained men for every battlefield in the world. Her heroes have followed Old Glory to the farthest ends of the earth, gathering Purple Hearts and battle stars—and filling lonely graves.

South Carolina's motto is Dum Spiro, Spero (While I Breathe I Hope); also, Animus Opibusque Parati (Prepared in Spirit and Wealth, or Ready with Minds and Resources), and at no time in her history have these phrases been more fitting than they are now.

From the mountains to the sea, South Carolina has 31,055 square miles of inviting land!

Granting Loan to Britain Would Benefit U. S. Business

FROM observations this reporter has made in the hearings on the proposed British loan it appears that opposition is coming largely from the same sources which were definitely pre-Pearl Harbor isolationists.

To the uninitiated the arguments pro and con on this proposed $3,750,000,000 loan are confusing. They are involved with high finance and foreign trade, with the sterling bloc, the export cycles, with international credit and many other factors which only experts at that sort of thing can readily perceive.

Stripped down to everyday language, however, here are the potent factors: (1) We are actually merely extending Britain a line of credit to the amount of $3,750,000,000; (2) She can draw on this credit until December 31, 1951, and pays us back in 50 equal installments with interest at 2 per cent; she must pay the principal installment every year and (3) Britain agrees to open up to unrestrained American trade the entire British Commonwealth of South Africa, India, Australia, the British Isles and every place else where sterling is the rate of exchange to American business and American dollars and she cannot obtain a loan from any third country until after 1951. Now that's what we give and Britain promises.

What do we get back? We get our money back, plus interest, plus $650,000,000 of lend-lease balance, plus increased exports to Britain and the British Commonwealth, plus payment in dollars, plus no discriminatory import restrictions against the U. S., plus paying a portion of her debts to other nations in American dollars giving other countries more money with which to buy American goods, plus support of the American proposals for getting world trade going through an International Trade Organization.

We Would Gain Much

Now why is this loan important to the average business man and farmer in the small towns of the country? There are four reasons: (1) We must have an expanding foreign trade to keep our high productive capacity on farm and factory going full tilt; (2) Britain and the British Commonwealth of Nations were our best customers before the war . . . they took 42 per cent of our trade; (3) an expanding foreign trade among nations can't happen unless Britain can pay her war debts and can be put on an economically sound basis, for though we have a huge war debt, we owe no one but the American people, whereas Britain owes other nations and (4) without economic security of other nations, fostered by expanding world trade, there can be no insurance of world peace. And a fifth reason is that Britain, our ally, took an unmerciful pounding costing thousands of British lives, to save American lives while we were getting prepared for war.

The argument is made that Britain did not pay her debt to us after World War I. She did pay back 434 million dollars in principal and 1½ billion dollars in interest before the world depression caught her. The argument also is made that to make this loan will cause some inflation here and the answer is that Britain only wants goods which come from our war-expanded industries and commodities of which we have surpluses and moreover, if she spends it all here, it would only amount to five-tenths of 1 per cent of the total demand for goods and services in this country over an anticipated five-year period.

Little Left to Sell

Let Britain sell her holdings in this country, is another argument of the isolationists. But she has only 585 million dollars in unpledged assets in this country, and in addition she is borrowing 1½ billion dollars from Canada at 2 per cent, the only other country which has dollars.

Another argument is, why should we loan our dollars to a socialist nation? Well, there is a question of whether or not England really is socialist. Even if it is, nevertheless it is the Bank of England that finances the British government with internal loans. Most certainly an expanding world trade and attending prosperity will tend to strengthen rather than weaken the free enterprise system, even in England. So the British loan will not subsidize socialism in England.

And the argument that to make a loan to Britain will open the door to applications for other nations. This is answered in this fashion. . . . UNRRA will take care of relief loans. The International Bank will take care of long-term reconstruction and development loans and the U. S. Import-Export bank will help finance American foreign trade.

British financiers have told house majority leader Barkley that they cannot enter the international bank or the monetary fund unless the loan is granted without "strings."

CRYSTAL CITY - LEGIONNAIRES LINE UP NEXT SUNDAY

Owing to the bad weather last Sunday, the baseball game scheduled between the Hondo Legionnaires and a Crystal City nine was postponed until the coming Sunday.

The boys from Pruneda Post have a very fine ball team and if you enjoy the sport it will be worth your while to attend their games.

The ball game will be followed by an outdoor dance in celebration of Mother's Day, at the Gallardo Platform. Music will be furnished by the "Uvalde Serenaders."

This office has been furnished with a copy of the new rules and regulations of the Medina County Fat Stock Show which holds its next regular annual show here. The rules show a comprehensive program is planned which will be of tremendous help in the improvement of the livestock industry in Medina County. We regret that owing to its length we can not publish it at this time.
